

The background is a dark, textured surface, possibly slate or stone. It is decorated with various fresh ingredients: sprigs of green herbs (likely thyme or rosemary) are scattered on the left side; a cluster of small, round, red cherry tomatoes is on the right; and a pile of mixed spices, including black and white peppercorns and red peppercorns, is in the bottom left corner. A small glass dish containing a yellow liquid, possibly oil or vinegar, is also visible in the bottom left.
